Facilitated by: Nicki Pakkala & Monique Morimoto Flaherty

Nicki grew up as a competitive horsewoman in England. She is an experienced Physiotherapist using healing systems such as BodyTalk, CranioSacral Therapy and Visceral Manipulation for people and horses. In the past 2 years her relationship with horses has made a 180° turn. By simply being in their presence they've shown her how profound changes can take place. The time has come to collaborate with these incredible creatures to facilitate people in their own process of realization.

Monique's lifelong love of horses and her capacity to empower people to live their full potential have brought her soul's purpose into fruition with the founding of Diamond Horse Coaching.
